Founded in 1947, Hal Leonard Corporation has become the worlds largest print music publisher, representing some of the greatest songwriters and artists of all time. We are proud to publish titles of interest to all musicians as well as music lovers, from songbooks and instructional titles to artist biographies and instrument price guides to books about the music industry and all the performing arts.

This is the second one I purchased because the first one wore out. I also recommend it to my voice students. The songs are varied, from musicals where children have a good role,, fun to sing and mostly within a child's range. I was disappointed because it was advertised as coming with a cd if you got the extra few dollars. It is a good thing because the kids when buying the book can go home and not have to look up the song on some app. It is there for them. I like it too because then I can sit back and watch them do it, giving me more of a sense of what they are doing correctly or need help with instead of playing while they sing.

I use this book all the time with my younger voice students. Great selection of songs that are actually from children's roles in the shows (i.e. Annie from Annie, Winthrop from Music Man, etc...).

The book had some songs not the same as the brand new book my student got. Very disappointed that this was not clearly made known before buying what I thought would be the same as that of my students.

Great arrangements for intermediate pianists. I am planning on using this book for a homeschool children's choir I conduct. I only wish it had more songs! I like the selection, but would have loved to have a few more selections from Oliver! and Peter Pan. Other than that, I'm very pleased with what is there.

Good variety for young students, especially girls.

My daughter's singing teacher asked for this book for her lessons.

If you have a child who like to sing solos and will sing appropriate songs for the development of the voice, these are amazing! Great arrangements

This collection has some great pieces for developing voices to use along with art songs for beginning students. Most of the music is geared to the subject level of young singers. As with most Broadway songs, the range is rather low and doesn't encourage growth in range, but just keeps the singers engaged and happy. Good for some choreography.
