Synopsis

Described as a universal genius, Leonardo da Vinci (1452–1519) was also one of the greatest painters that ever lived. Sixteen masterful works of art by this celebrated Renaissance man, adapted by Marty Noble, invite would-be artists of all ages to apply their own colors to skillful renderings of—Mona Lisa, The Annunciation, St. John the Baptist, The Virgin of the Rocks, Portrait of Beatrice d'Este, Vitruvian Man, and ten other masterpieces. Color these famous creations with crayons, felt-tip pens or other media, place them near a source of bright light, and enjoy the glow of a lovely stained glass effect.

Customer Reviews

My daughter (9yr old) just colored her first page in this and wow, are we impressed. The pages are very thin, but have a sheen to it so that when you color it, the light shines through like stain glass. The pages are fragile, so be warned that it is not something you can just rip out haphazardly. If you are studying da Vinci and want a fun activity to do alongside reading his story, this would be a nice addition.

inwould totally buy this again !!

not really my thing but have no problems

A gift to my mother. She loves it.

Bought it for a DaVinci unit for my class. Love the idea of stain glass coloring. Wish it would've come with even more pages.

Gave to a friend for her birthday and she said she is enjoying it! She likes that the lines are dark enough to trace.
