Bear-ly Time

Synopsis

A 30,000 word standalone in the Bear-ly family series of books with a hot new bear shifter, his human mate, and a snarky vampire sidekick.Harvey wasn't entirely sure that he was in the right frame of mind for a ready-made family. Fate had other plans.Macy was about waist height to the bear shifter and a whole heap of trouble. She turned up to challenge him at the store, where he worked, and then she managed to get herself in trouble with the local bear clan. But the biggest problem of all was that her mother was Harvey's mate. Harvey was going to protect his new daughter with his life and he just might have to.Jordan was juggling enough problems. The last thing that she needed was to find out that she was a mate. But when Macy went missing, her problems were only going to get worse.Could Jordan trust Harvey and his vampire friend, Owen, enough to bring Macy home? In truth, she didn't have much choice.

Customer Reviews

Harvey is a bear shifter. He is grumpy and antisocial, but protective when it comes to females. Which is a good thing since he just found his mate and she comes with a precocious 7 year old.

Jordan and her daughter Macy have moved in with her father, after her divorce. Macy has taken a liking to Harvey and his vampire friend Owen. A fun fast paced and steamy story.

I liked that Harvey's mate was a human with a child. Macy was a cute precious child. Jordan did take it pretty well that she was a mate. Overall the book was good.

The only thing wrong with this story ,is it wasn't long enough. I enjoyed the fact that there was a child in the story. It brought a different element.

What can I say that hasn't been said by me about M L Briers, Brilliant you never disappoint me when I read any book from you. Keep up the excellent work

Little to serious for my taste but a ok read, not as good as your other books. Not as many laughs in it, but what the heck.

For me, only 2.5 stars.
