Crime doesn't pay with this crew. This group will risk their life for the truth. It pays to have these women on one's team. I love the characters and their quirks. Every journey reveals more about these strong women. This time they defend a sociopathic slum lord. Who killed a homeless guy. Self defense? Guess again. Thanks for the thrilling ride Lisa.;

I have enjoyed all of Lisa Scottoline's books. I just finished the last I this series and haven't been able to get interested in anything since! Maybe I'll just wait for the next one to come out! ha ha

Most of the story takes place during a blizzard, but it doesn't keep the characters from staying outdoors for hours at a time. I've been in a few blizzards and no way would I be able to run through the snow let alone just be out in it. That made the story very unbelievable. Just snowing would have worked, but a blizzard.... No Way.

I just completed my 5th Rosato & Associates book and I am absolutely hooked! I've been a thriller reader for several years now and, unfortunately, most of my favorite authors have either died or stopped writing for other reasons. I keep trying new names with decent reviews but I'm usually disappointed because most of the new names don't seem to know how to tell a great story without a huge amount of needless complexity and meaningless plots. Not here! Lisa Scottoline is the most concise author I've ever experienced. Her characters are described in a colorful and concise manner that is very special. You rapidly become attached to them and thoroughly enjoy their successes and predicaments. There is always great and meaningful humor in her stories. I hope she will keep Rosato & Associates alive in the future! I promise to read every single one! Try this author! She will probably win you over too!

Lisa Scottoline is an amazing author with every one of her books a treasure!

In typical Lisa Scottoline fashion, Rough Justice was riveting. A surprise ending! No spoiler alert from me. You will enjoy!

This book deserved a 5star rating. A true page turner from beginning to end. Great job describing the City of Philadelphia

An engrossing read, albeit an adventure in "the perils of Pauline". At every turn Mary encounters resistance, disappointment, failure, or danger. She finds herself in an desperate position and must stretch her education and experience to identify her options.
