Dreaming of traveling to Spain? This is the book for you. It starts out with a map of Spain. The five-day guide provides recommendations, tips, currency, country code, emergency numbers, local airports, and explains about how emergency treatment is provided for free in public hospitals for visitors. I was surprised about that. August is the high season. Bring a good pair of walking shoes. The guide tells you what important items you won't want to forget. Sightseeing highlights included as well as hidden treasures of less-known gems you won't want to miss. Etiquette for greeting, dining, and smoking is provided. Information provided regarding tipping. There are bike, boat, and walking tours as well as bus or car. There is even a five-day itinerary provided that you can play around with to suit your personal tastes and add or subtract activities for a fun-filled, well-balanced time in Barcelona! It's a big city, but walkable during five days, according to the guide, or you can rent a bike. Restaurants and hotel information included. A book full of tips and necessary information that I highly recommend if you want to have a safe, fun-filled trip.

Really love this book! Great service, arrived quickly. Great price too. Colorful beautiful photos, maps, hints, transportation....very very helpful!!!

My family is planning to visit Barcelona this coming Christmas, and I am really excited so I immediately purchased some travel guides about it. I actually like this book, it already includes some important information that we need to learn about Barcelona, especially the place to eat and sleep, also the map and the local tourist information. Great guide!

I have a friend living in Barcelona and he told me story about the place and it is really awesome according to him. I am planning to go there but at this moment I am on the process of preparing myself financially. Thank you for this book at least I was given an insight on what to do. Best guide.

I've never been to Barcelona, but it's always been the #1 spot I've wanted to travel. Thanks to this book, I have the inspiration to start saving some money for real. Right at the beginning of the book, all necessities to travel with are listed as well as great Barcelona travel tips. I especially enjoyed the etiquette "insider tips" which might not be revealed otherwise, making you blend into the culture of Barcelona even better. Also, the 5-day itinerary is a great travel plan for anyone who doesn't want to make any plans for themselves, and just enjoy the best bits of Barcelona. Very in-depth information. Highly recommended to any travelers headed to Barcelona!
