Customer Reviews

If you have any plan to go Australia for traveling or making a trip, then no doubt this book will help you a lot for sure. I grabbed this from the wake my curiosity to know more about Australia. Though still I didn't fix the date to go Australia but my family members have a plan to go there soon may after 2 months. I picked this book kinda early for knowing about where to go while traveling Australia, how to keep myself & my family members safe from all type of dangerous traps, where to eat & stay, insights about various cities and much more things. This travel guidebook fulfilled my expectation & throughout this read I have come to know all the essential things before go to Australia. Must read this book if you have any plan or any interest. Worth purchase so far!

This would be a great resource to have in the planning stages of a trip to Australia, or to carry with you while you are there. Now...we just have to find the funds to pay for the trip!

Australia is one destination that has been listed in my bucket list to travel. In this book I have learned the basics information I need about this place and what are the things I needed to prepare and do in here. Well, I can know say that I am too excited to book and plan my travel on Australia next week.
