Recent deck purchases for me have been Doreen Virtue ones. I am an avid tarot and oracle card collector... well maybe more an addicted tarot and oracle card collector, and lately I have found my best personal tarot readings have been through Doreen Virtue and Radleigh Valentine's series of tarot decks. Guardian Angel Tarot (GAT) has been an interesting joy for me as they are more oracle in nature (how its printed, how it reads, etc.) than the other Doreen Virtue and Radleigh Valentine decks. The images are somewhat a hybrid of victorian and modern victorian revival. The images make you forget you're even dealing with a tarot deck and even an oracle deck. It reminds me a little bit of, just a little, the Normand divination decks of the past. The guidebook comes with 3 of the usual spreads. Single, 3 card, and celtic cross. Its a thick guidebook. I've enjoyed the LWB but because with this deck most of the messages are printed on the face of the cards (it reminds me of the inscription from Doreen's Daily Guidance Angel deck) I rarely look at the book though the book offers a lot more additional meanings. I think the guidebook is well done and even though sometimes the messages in Doreen's decks tends to be repetitive, I found this deck to be less repetitive and more of an elaboration on a theme. Accuracy is pretty intensely on point. I love to do personal readings with the series of Doreen Virtue and Radleigh Valentine decks because you can't really lie to yourself about how you see the outcome manifesting. I seem to be an honest, nonbiased reader when doing readings for others with regular tarot decks, but when it comes to me sometimes I lie to myself. So these weird hybrid oracle/tarot decks they make it impossible for you to lie to yourself. And, like I say, the accuracy is so on point with this deck. I think those who are pure tarot lovers tend to have issues with Doreen Virtue and her proliferation of decks. I know she will have a Fairy Tarot deck coming out soon too... but to each their own. I used to abhor her decks, but since life has changed my perspective on seeing things, I now have a stronger bond with her decks. Decks that did not use to work for me, now do. Also, people connect emotionally, mentally, and spiritually to different things (God, Mother Mary, Archangel Michael, faeries, cats, dogs, people, etc.) and so to have a variety of themes that one can choose from in order to choose their divination deck is what I find necessary. So even though her messages are repetitive, you have to realize she's creating a deck for every spiritual theme/genre out there. These are very gentle cards... more gentle than her previous 2 tarot decks.... they are accurate and gentle

I LOVE LOVE LOVE this deck. I have purchased several tarot decks before but never used them.

They did not give any explanations so when a card was drawn I could not interpret it. Also, The others seems so ugly and scary. If you have always wanted to have a tarot deck that is easy and positive THIS IS THE ONE. Now, given that... I am person with a massive amount of stress and negativity in my life. I don't need to re-hash all the crap going on in my life. I want positive, healthy inspiration. Something that will motivate me to make changes and not keep blaming myself or let others walk all over me. Other decks have not provided me any direction or motivate me to make changes or "think: about it the rest of the day. The deck is gorgeous. Each card is a lot thicker cardstock than any other ones I have. Other cards are the thickness like an actual playing card deck. This deck reminds me of the thickness of the little cardboard book you would buy a toddler when they are little so they don't rip the pages. The pictures are gorgeous. And the sides of the cards are gold covered.

I love the Guardian Angel tarot cards. They are easy to read, gentle, and absolutely beautiful. I think they are great for a beginner of card reading. Personally, I connected with them real well. They aren't conventional tarot cards but have a style of their own, in that, all the meanings are gentle and uplifting. I have been reading cards for years. When I give readings, I have various decks to choose from according to my intuition, the kind of reading and what the client is requesting. I do use regular tarot cards, for example rider waite tarot cards and sometimes use more than one deck or just choose a different type of cards. I have a number of Doreen Virtues cards, I just happen to be attracted to these particular cards and I think this will be one of my favorite decks. I can just look at the pictures and pick up on the angel energy of these cards and intuitively read. Regular tarot cards are not scary. The ones that may look frightening usually are a wake up call or telling you about an obstacle you need to overcome. It's all a matter of what you are intuitively drawn to and your choice.

LOVE, this deck! It's amazingly beautiful and gentle to the eye. The pictures has a Victorian Era look. It makes me want to go inside the card and live there. The deck has a golden edge which makes it look like sent from heaven. I honestly can't see myself doing a Tarot reading with this deck because the message on them is too distracting but, I can see myself using them for personal use. Like for a card a day guidance.

An amazingly beautiful deck! I love Doreen Virtue's decks and books, and this did not disappoint. The cards are bright, flowing, and whimsical. Very enlightening! I can't wait to use it to do a reading.

My goodness how these very gentle angel tarot cards have opened my mind! So very, very accurate & profound. I highly recommend to anyone who is hesitant or new to tarot cards. Never scary, you will be pleasantly surprised.

These are by far the best tarot tools I have ever used. They aren't too sweet like I was expecting them to be. In fact, I would never have ordered these, but I had a dream about them and felt compelled. They are informative and accurate. I'm sensitive and don't need the distraction of "scary" words and imagery to get the point of challenging symbols. With these cards, the tarot meanings have all of a sudden clicked for me.

Is a GREAT deck of cards to own. I immediately got perfect readings from these cards. Made a great addition to my collection. You will not be let down with this deck. Easy to use and you can feel the energy within them! Recommend them for any tarot reader!
