Cleveland's West Side Market: 100 Years And Still Cooking

Synopsis

Cleveland's West Side Market is a matchless culinary and cultural resource, a nationally significant architectural treasure, and part of the city's distinctive urban landscape. In continuous use since it opened in 1912, the market is among the oldest municipally owned and operated retail food arcades and one of only a handful of such places left in the country. The book chronicles the history of this notable landmark and all it offers consumers and culinary aficionados. Written by two well-known Cleveland food writers, the book takes readers on a nostalgic tour of the market building, outdoor arcades, and into the lives of many vendors and market families who are the true foundation of this historic public space. The volume is rich with many rare, and until now unpublished, vintage and contemporary photographs, and images that provide a delightful armchair tour of this magnificent landmark, which is a must-see destination for food lovers.

Marilou Suszko is the author of two cookbooks: Farms & Foods of Ohio: From Garden Gate to Dinner Plate, and The Locavore's Kitchen. As a food writer, her work appears in local, regional and national publications. A culinary instructor and a frequent guest speaker, Marilou's career has revolved around food for more than twenty-five years but her most valuable experience comes from a lifetime of enjoying wonderful food.

Chef Michael Symon grew up in a Greek and Sicilian family. The Cleveland native creates boldly flavored, deeply satisfying dishes at his four restaurants in America's heartland: Lola,

Lolita, Roast and B Spot. He also shares his exuberant, approachable cooking style and infectious laugh with viewers as an Iron Chef on the Food Network. Since being named a Best New Chef by Food & Wine magazine in 1998, Michael and his restaurants have been awarded numerous honors. In 2010, he was the first chef ever to host the annual Farm Aid benefit concert. Bon Appetit magazine included B Spot on their list of "Top 10 Best New Burger Joints." B Spot's Fat Doug burger won the People's Choice Award at the SoBe Wine & Food Festival. In 2009, Michael earned The James Beard Foundation Award for Best Chef Great Lakes and the Detroit Free Press named Roast "Restaurant of the Year." In 2000, Gourmet magazine chose Lola as one of "America's Best Restaurants."

Excellent cookbook and read. Keeps my heart close to Cleveland.

The West Side Market is wonderful. My family and I grew up shopping at the West Side Market. The sights and sounds and different nationalities are so interesting. The book is very well written and catches the flavors, smells and people who are vendors at the West Side Market. I love the book.

I love reading about the history of places. This is a very well written book. The illustrations are beautiful. As a child my parents would take us there. Plus my father worked there for 30 years and is featured in this book.
