Customer Reviews

Book came in excellent condition even though it was a very cheap used copy. Looks nearly brand new. I've read it before. It has an exotic, vaguely dark, odd feel to it, and yet it captures your attention and makes you love the characters. At the last scene of the book (SPOILERS)

-----when he leaves the cemetery, I cried my eyes out. (Granted I recently had become a father and a friend had lost their baby so the scene was particularly poignant). I recommend it highly.

The Graveyard Book Â Neil Gaiman is my favorite author. Period. I love fantasy and science fiction, but I love Neil's work most of all. His writing is so accessible, filled with humor and imagination. Like all Gaiman stories, it begins with parts that slowly assemble into a working whole, keeping you on edge and turning another page.

My daughter read this for her summer reading project and her reaction was wonderful. I purchased the audible book and she listened to the characters as they came alive. She laughed and thoroughly enjoyed the plot as well as the cast of characters. Excellent choice. I had zero trouble getting her to complete her project this year.

Delightfully enchanting, bittersweet and original. There seems to be a hole in the main plot but it really didn't seem to matter because it wasn't the point of the story, really. A unique story line, great characters, I would love to read a sequel.

Oh My Goth! I Once I Started Reading This, I Could Not Put It Down And Stayed Up Late Into The Wee Hours To Finish It! This Is The Awesome Magical Story Of Bod, The Living Boy Who Was Raised By An Entire Graveyard Of Ghosts. I Have Always Had A Love Of Graveyards And This Book Did Not Disappoint At All! How Could It? It Was Written By The Same Author Who's Magic Gave Us Coraline And Stardust! I Have Already Found The Author, Niel Gaiman, Reading It U-Tube And Have Texted My Daughter To Suggest This Book For My GrandChildren To Read And Write Listen To Now For Halloween! I Have Both Of The Mov lil es 'Coraline' & 'Stardust' But Now I Know I Need To Go Back And Read Them And Anything Else He Writes!

For the adult reader, the layered metaphors are brilliant. For a child reader, the story lines propel you along in wonder. Highly recommended for all ages. Also serves as a great bedtime read for adult and child.

Many tales in the Coming of Age genre can easily fall prey to cliches. Gaiman lovingly treats any cliche he chooses to employ with respect and ingenuity. Neil has a unique blend of wonder in his storytelling that always seems to walk the line between heartache and hilarity -- The Graveyard Book is no exception. A perfect read for any occasion.

Gaiman's writing pulled me into the story in a wink. The setting is detailed. The characters are riveting. The plot is both playful and suspenseful. It is a well crafted story by a master writer. Brilliant.
