Customer Reviews

Fun danced arrangements, but most are really short. Just two pages, only one verse. Lots of songs though.

Love the arrangements. I've had the Dan Coates Easy and then Medium versions > graduating to this level. Some are a bit tough for me but like them enough to hammer at it!

Coming from someone who took piano lessons for 11 years but hasn't played in 30, these arrangements are pretty difficult. I am getting better at some of them and should be much more familiar with them by next Christmas. Only 364 days left!

Beautiful arrangements of piano music. Some are easier than others, which gives a good range of pieces that you can pick up right away and others that you'll want to spend a little more time working on.

Some of the arrangements are just essentially hymns with more baseline. But there were some wonderful arrangements of some new songs. I really liked "Grown-Up Christmas List" "Believe" and "Auld Lang Zyne." Getting my money's worth even if I don't use all of the songs.

This is exactly the type of book I was looking for. Excellent arrangements and a challenge to play well! Nice mix of traditional sound with some jazzy transitions that keep even the old standards fresh and interesting!

Havent found an arrangement I really enjoy yet. Not very hard.

Great book! Contains a wide variety of Christmas songs from different levels. Some are easy, others are quite challenging, but all sound advanced. Definitely worth your money.
