My mom purchased this for me to help me prepare for the ACT. The cards in the Kaplan ACT in a Box do not match up with the test in reading and chemistry. It was fine in math, but the questions in reading and chemistry were not set up the same as on the test. I realize we can not get the exact questions on our practices, but it really would have helped if it was set up in the same format. Thank God I had other practice products as well. I would not recommend this product to others if they do not have alternate practices at their disposal as well.

This box is just the right size for studying on the go. It's so convenient and much easier than carrying the other ACT guides from place to place.

Printed with 7 point typeface -- completely unnecessary eye strain. (7 point is smaller than the legal limit for fine print on most consumer contracts and advertising, for instance.) Most cards have 99% of the space blank -- plenty of room for a much larger typeface. Some cards need the tiny font size to fit a lengthy answer on the reverse, but there is no reason why ALL of the cards used such ridiculously small print. Don't plan to use these anywhere unless 1) you have strong direct light, and 2) you can hold the card close to your face. I haven't used the cards in earnest yet, the content seems useful enough from a quick flip-through. The cards are thin, but good quality otherwise.

Fast shipping, & helped my daughter a lot.

Kaplan ACT flash cards: info was ok, but print/font on flash cards was VERY small and faint. Could have easily been printed so it was easier to read.

excellent! I'm very pleased!

They are way too small and flimsy to use! The Barrons' are much better quality and useful to use! Most students never use these as they are way too small and clumsy to use.

Great Service & Value !
