Everything's Eventual: Five Dark Tales

Synopsis

A stunning collection of five boundary-pushing stories from Stephen King—now available from Encore for a great value. The title story, Everything's Eventual, features Dinky Earnshaw—a nineteen-year-old pizza boy—who gets hired by a mysterious stranger for a unique and totally "eventual" (awesome) job. Read by Justin Long. In Autopsy Room Four, the last thing Howard Cottrell remembers is entering the woods to find his golf ball. He wakes up as he is being rolled into an autopsy room. Read by Oliver Platt. In The Little Sisters of Eluria, Roland is a gunslinger in a deserted town when he gets ambushed. Read by Boyd Gaines. In Lucky Quarter, Darlene is a single mom struggling to raise two kids on her income as a chambermaid in Reno. When Room 322 leaves her a quarter for a tip, Darlene lets that quarter take her for a ride. Read by Judith Ivey. The Road Virus Heads North follows an author who buys a creepy painting at a yard sale, painted by a metal-head neighbor just before he committed suicide. Read by Jay O. Sanders. Intense, eerie, and instantly compelling, these five stories showcase the stunningly fertile imagination of perhaps the greatest storyteller of our time.

I've always deeply enjoyed the writing of Steve King . Particularly his short story collections . My preference in reading being collections of short stories (by various authors) . A good collection of essays or great journalism .All the readers on this compact disc collection of five stories culled from Everything's Eventual do a terrific job of reading the material .This ain't literature . You know that going in (hopefully) . These are , by and large , "good yarns" . Some significantly better than others .Also in the cons column must reside the fact that only five stories from the collection are here . Additionally , it "appears" that two or more titles were selected for their relative brevity ?My recommendation ? Buy the book

Love it

NOT AS GOOD AS HIS OTHER STORIES
