His Brother's Keeper (The Johansson Brothers Book 2)

Synopsis

Brand Johansson wasn't overly interested in getting to know his brothers and his uncle. As a child, he was adopted because his mother abandoned him. His adoptive parents decided he wasn't what they wanted. Twice betrayed, he didn't have a whole lot of use for family and little patience with other people. Most often, anger drove him, but that didn't get in the way of his job as a private investigator. When Brand's younger brother sets his sights on Shawnita Taylor, Brand knows it isn't a good idea. He figures the best way to foil his brother's plans is to seduce her himself. Not an easy task when Brand's bad attitude causes him to insult her loud enough for an entire room full of people to hear. Soon Brand realizes Shawnita is the perfect lover. He can't get enough of her of sweet body or her sassy mouth. The question is will she trust him once he reveals a secret that could destroy the tenuous relationship between his brothers?

Customer Reviews

I really liked the second installment of the Johansson brothers. It was great reading more about the siblings and unexpected that Brand and Shawnita got together. However, their hot chemistry couldn't be denied. I love that neither one of them pulled any punches in saying what was on their mind and their fierce loyalty to their family. These two definitely had some issues they needed to work through when it came to love and relationships but I was happy to be on the journey with them. Great story!

Brand and Shawnita are made for each other and their chemistry is smoking hot. They are each other missing piece. The supporting characters are hilarious with some crazy drama.

I love when both the man and woman gives as good at holding out as the other especially when they love so hard I definitely recommend!!

Loved this story...Five stars
