Great book - great service

This book is a compact reference for many simple syntactical patterns and much usage that would be very useful for a visitor to France. It cannot of itself instill habits of vocalization, of course, but as a supplement to a program of practice it could add a lot of support to a student's foundation. I don't think the book can be the sole basis for such a program, but it can become a good friend to someone trying to acquire spoken French. Yes, it fills a need.

It's as expected. I like it, Thanks
