Gary Pluff lives in Upstate New York with his wife and two kids and for more than 40 years has been a player, coach, and huge fan of basketball. An educator for more than 20 years, his love of coaching and teaching has taken him on an exciting journey living in Virginia, the Philippines, and Thailand. Coaching his son Casey has motivated him to reflect on, and then to chronicle, all facets of the game of basketball that are necessary to become a great player. Gary's desire to share with others and to help them achieve their basketball dreams resulted in his first book, The A-Z Basketball Book, What Every Player Needs to Know to Be Great at the Game! --This text refers to an alternate Paperback edition.

I bought this for my son who is 12 and plays basketball. This is a good book that teaches many lessons like how to be a team player and these guidelines are great for any kid around this age.

This book along with the videos online are terrific learning tools for anyone wishing to learn the basics. Great starting place. I gave it as a gift to my grandson for Christmas.

Thank you, Gary for your book! This is perfect for any player, but especially those pre-teen and teenage years.

It was well written, but I thought it was uninspiring and somewhat basic.

Every kid should read this.

We bought this book on basketball for our 13 year old nephew who loves basketball. It was a hit, which can be difficult when making a purchase for a 13 year old, but he loved it and so did we!

Mr. Pluff has done a great job with this book. I would highly recommend it to all young players wanting to take their games to the next level.
