

Attitude Volume 2: Life Skills

Synopsis

Out of Print Each of the 3 volumes of the new Attitude series offers 32 powerful sessions on real-life issues chosen by teens, for teens. Like peer pressure. Acceptance. Friendship. Family issues. Emotions. Each of the scripture-based sessions contains a 2-page guide that includes everything you need to prepare for and facilitate the discussion. Plus each session has a 2-page participant paper you can reproduce for each teen in your group. The papers feature articles, commentary and activities keyed to the session to help teenagers sort through the week's topic and come up with solid, sensible answers. Included in the back of each volume is an introduction and overview of the entire Attitude series with scripture and topical indexes. An ideal youth ministry resource to use at group meetings, retreats, or in classroom sessions. Topics include friendship, family issues, school, dating, and acceptance.

Customer Reviews

Very good my teenagers enjoy it chapters coincide with stuff that teens experience everyday.

The lessons are relevant & scripture-based. The discussions are question-driven. Take-home sheet for each lesson. As a teacher, I recognize that they follow quality lesson practices, including brain-based learning activities and a general lesson sequence (anticipatory set, lesson, practice, reflection). You will need time to review & prepare for the lesson before you teach it. I recommend highlighting important segments and making notes. This book is especially helpful for new teachers and those in need of inspiration. Additional materials required are usually not complicated (like bibles, pens & paper). I would have given it 5 stars, except I feel that some of the lessons are too long (you could spread them out over a few weeks or shorten them).
