Customer Reviews

"The brilliant de Adder nails us again! He understands our quirks, our boasts, our foibles, our hopes, our insecurities. He employs his always pointed pen to make us laugh at ourselves. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, the boy is some good!"
•Stephen Kimber, Professor of Journalism, University of King's College
"Michael de Adder is a very funny guy and a very astute one. Not only are his cartoons hilarious; each of the ones in this book picks out a foible that every Nova Scotian will recognize and enjoy."
•Silver Donald Cameron, Host and Executive Producer, TheGreenInterview.com

Michael de Adder is an award-winning editorial cartoonist. He studied at Mount Allison University where he received a Bachelor of Fine Arts in drawing and painting. His work is syndicated throughout North America, making him one of the most read cartoonists in Canada. He lives in Halifax, Nova Scotia.

both persons I sent this to, said they loved it, very funny.

Excellent book. Author does a first class job of describing some typical Nova Scotia sayings.

I loved the book - every page reminds me of someone/something! I could not put it down once I started reading it!

Very funny book!

If you are from NS, it will bring a smile to your face.

good fun gave them to my sisters a a real kick out of them

I thought it would be more informative. My fault.

Highly recommended to anyone!
