When I decided to go to Ireland alone and drive through out the island this Spring I did not know anything about the land, people or where to stay. This guide lead me comfortably throughout the land and I had a wonderful visit. I saw horse races, pubs, castles and beautiful country sides. Thanks for your help. I would not have wanted to do it without this book.

Authors seem to have unlimited budget and I wish they had given some more info on B & Bs. Also I would have liked more- detailed maps. I'll stick with Fodor editions in future.

I was looking forward to getting this, but when I got it, I saw that the book itself does not have any pictures...was looking forward to pictures in a travel book. seems well written, but I wanted some pictures and diagrams

This book has achieved what in my experience is a first - a travel book about a country without a single map of that country!

We bought this book to prepare for our trip to Ireland. Good level of detail. The travel tips and lists are excellent. I feel it's a very good guide for helping plan our itinerary.

It cover what all the other books cover. Color pictures would have been nice but it did its job.

I just went to Ireland and this told me many things to do when I go back! Very informative!

used the book all the time
