Synopsis

Roisin Williams is desperate to be the girl that blends into the background. She doesn't really speak and she doesn't want to be spoken to. This is the only way she knows how to protect the secret she's kept hidden for her whole life. Lance Williams knows that his daughter doesn't behave like a normal seventeen year old girl and he's worried. He decides a fresh start, away from their house that's full of old, painful memories is a good idea. A new home, in a new city where no one knows her can only be a good thing for Roisin, right? Wrong. Cannon Beach is home to Cabe Evans. He's smart, polite, kind and ridiculously attractive, but he doesn't date - ever. At school, he's popular, outgoing and has all the girls falling at his feet, all of them except the new girl, Roisin, who seems to do everything she possibly can to avoid him. When Cabe's intrigue gets the better of him he tries to figure out why Roisin wants to hide from everyone, but soon finds himself caught up in a tangled web of deceit, torment and anger. Can Cabe rescue Roisin before it's too late, or will her secret be the death of her?

Customer Reviews

I'm really disappointed. Not in the book, but with the author. I originally rated this story a 4.5, but now just a 1. I originally purchased this book in 2014 with the expectation of a sequel that has yet to be delivered. It is now going on 2 years since the second book was to be released. In that time, the author has released other stories. There has yet to be any updates as to whether or not the plan is still to release the remaining books in this series. It's as if the author has simply forgotten that the story of Rose and Cabe is unfinished. With that being said, as amazing as this book is, I would not recommend it. These are characters that one will invest in and it's not worth the disappointment of a permanent cliffhanger. I do not think that this author has any intention of ever continuing on with this series.

Okay seriously. I've never even considered writing a review before, though I depend on them for buying books all the time. So the fact that this book is getting a review is huge. I can't praise this author enough. She developed the characters so seamlessly and let the story intrigue come first instead of just the romance. I was always thinking about the mysterious questions instead of if the heroine was getting a date or not. Sincerely looking forward (aka counting down the days) to the next book and others by this author.

this book was excellent!! it touched on something that happens to more children's /teens than we realize. I was engrossed from the beginning and didn't want to set it down! Typically I would not pick a book with ghosts in the story but this book was so moving I am disappointed I have to wait till summer to read the next book! I would never have picked this book for myself but the reviews were so good I gave a chance and happy I did!!

Such a disappointment, it was a cliffhanger that was supposed to continue in book 2 which was to be released the spring of 2014. Book #2 was never written so we never find out what happens! What a waste of time.

love this story the characters are so real and believable that I can't get them out of my head. it really sucks that I have to wait till summer to find out what happens next so if you are not a patient person don't buy this book till the next book comes out or you will be very disappointed with the cliffhanger ending cause it leaves you begging for Moore.

I really liked this book. It has you hanging in there all the time. I'm not too happy about the series of 3 books I would love more that it would have only one but the end of the book was marvelous. I recommend this book

I loved this book it keeps me on edge. it was magnificent. I was totally thrilled when I began this book. I don't recommend this to squeamish readers. you should majority consider this book.
