Customer Reviews

This book tell you exactly the notes for each of the songs on the self titled album "Blink-182". The book tell you how to tune each string, (each song has a capo on fret 2), play with tabs or with actual note reading, correct lyrics, and the notes for the vocals. This was a great buy and I plan on buying other tablature books with the same type of logo as sen on the top left.

Not the right chords but good though

i will purchase it from you next time. Very sharp and strong product. It was my first kind of cutting product for food and I am very impressed. I've had it for a few months now and its sharpness is still the best of all the knives I have. my brother need so cool product, just fine. recommend it to my friend.

And they improve again, with a more, heart-felt album. With tones of hits off this cd already, well, make that four, and much earned success. They put together a tablature book for us to play along. Most of it, is fairly simple. But they improved over the years, and this is their best work to date. Ok, here we go: Feeling This- Dropped D tuning and a Capo on the second fret. The song is in E major or can be transposed to D major as well. It's cool though. Obvious- Dropped 1 and 1/2 steps, into C# tuning. The song is simple, but really cool! It has the old punk style to it that Blink used to have. I Miss You- Same as the last song, drop C# tuning, the song is mostly just sliding your fingers up and down the frets. Still cool. With some very high notes as well. Violence- Again, drop C# tuning, but almost all these songs can be played without dropping it down, except Obvious. The song only has three parts to it, the intro where he vibrates A, and then the chorus part, and the bridge (which has a unique solo to it). Stockholm Syndrome- They even tabbed the piano part at the beginning, but I wouldn't try it on guitar. And the first song in the book that isn't dropped. And is one of the best songs on the album, I must say. The verse part is cool. Down- Drop C# tuning again, but can be played in E major as well. You'd probably find it easier in E major, but if you want a challenge, then C# is good as well. It's not terribly difficult to learn. The Fallen Interlude- They tabbed it, lots of high notes, so you have to know your picking quite well. It's more a drum song though. Go- Back to Blink basics, easy and fun! Asthenia- Starts out with the unique intro, and then jumps into the song, which starts out with finger picking, and then chords. It's fairly simple, but unique just the same. Drop D tuning. Always- It's a cool song! A lot of picking and it sounds very cool when you play it with the song! Easy Target- Fast paced and very rockish! All of This- The song is different, and fairly simple. Here's Your Letter- Like Shut Up in ways, because it's Mark's final song of the album, punk/rock, with less swearing. Overall, it's a nice song to play. I'm Lost Without You- Beautiful, but so easy. I love this song, but it's very repetitive. Overall, a good buy. I definitely recommend it if you want to know the songs the RIGHT way!

This book is great !!! This album is one of the best pop Punk Albums that was ever been done !!!
