Customer Reviews

I love this book! It's quite fun to read and my students enjoy learning from it.

A very nice coloring book that provides a brief description of the biography of selected classical composers.

This book has just enough material on each page to accompany a listening selection. The student can color and read as the listens, and it can accompany another activity. The written material is appropriate for upper elementary, or middle school.

very nice interesting helpful

Great book and very cheap and affordable for children who loves music and love to reach simple story on composers and to color them.

Great book. Very user friendly for young students. Very good resource for general music and music appreciation.

Great for music classroom use! Beautiful line drawings of composers in interesting contexts with brief descriptive paragraphs.

We love this product, we only wished that, while there aren't that many to choose from, the editors would have included at least one female composer... :)
