excellent resource for those considering the Episcopalian faith or wanting to learn more about the basic history and practices. Concise and intelligently written.

Just what I was wanting...a clear, concise description on the Episcopal church...how it came about as well as beliefs, customs and traditions.

Answered most of the question I had on what the Episcopalians believe. Short and easy to read.

Highly recommended.

A brief, but informative description of what it means to be Episcopalian. Very readable!

A wonderful and brief guide to what it means to be an Episcopalian. The only reason I gave it 4 stars instead of 5 is I would have preferred a more exhaustive and comprehensive set of essays.

Recommended by a priest at a local church. Good overview though brief.

This is a concise and helpful book for new and long time Episcopalians. We are going to include in our new member packet and keep some copies for the rest of us too!

Very interesting and a good resource in learning about the episcopal church. I recommend it to anyone who is interested in the episcopal church
