El Negro En Costa Rica (Spanish Edition)

Synopsis

La conjunción feliz de un historiador tan brillante y conocido como Carlos Meléndez y el narrador de origen limonense, Quince Duncan, ha dado lugar a una obra entre cuyos méritos no es el menos principal constituir el primer trabajo histórico-social de envergadura acerca de un grupo étnico cuya participación en la vida de nuestro país debe conocerse en toda su extensión e implicaciones, ya que los trabajadores inmigrantes que procedían de Jamaica y otros puntos de la zona del Caribe llegaron a ser a lo largo de sus descendientes, son y serán por siempre, parte indivisible del nosotros nacional.
