Customer Reviews

Glad I bought it used. Author never tells us in advance what he's going to tell us and never tells us afterwards what he thinks he has told us. Book has some good anecdotes. But we must draw our own conclusions.

For anyone who has ever asked, "Why am I here?" or "Why did God put me here?" here is the guidance for discernment. Sam's book will guide everyone who reads it as they look at their own call to vocation - laity and clergy alike. His thoughts on the vocations of our lives will enhance anyone's "self study" and also each of our relationships with our God.

Portaro's book is just what we need as we focus on who God created us to be. Timely questions of vocation and discernment are addressed, a help to anyone seeking answers to the deeper questions of their lives.
